

NEEDLE VALVES

Sigma's Needle Valve are available in two way, three way, multiport, single block & bleed, double deck and bleed. These Needle valves are available in variety of end connections screwed male/female pipe ends which confirm to ferrule designs. Valves as per custom needs with any end connections, for pressure ranging from 10 kg/cm² to 700 kg.cm², can be offered. Isolation needle valve upto 10000 PSI are available for hassle free long life in process lines. These valves can be used to isolate, calibrate and drain the process lines.

Material of Construction:

SS 316, SS 304, Brass, Carbon Steel, Monel, Hastalloy.

Range:

1/8" to 1" threaded. 1/8" OD to 1" OD suitable for tube end.

4 mm OD to 25 mm OD suitable for tube end.

End Connection: NPT / BSPT / BSP.

For Ordering Code / Model No., contact Sigma with the Valve specification.

Note

SIGMA reserves the right to modify specification / design from time to time, which is deemed suitable for the product without prior intimation from time to time.

